News of Bloodmobile Visit on October 2nd

As usual, our successful Bloodmobile visit on October 2nd was due to a number of volunteer workers who gave of their time and efforts plus our faithful donors.

Our first volunteers of the day were the unloaders, Ray Page and Richard C. Lewis, Jr. The next group were the typists, Julie Coffman, Jean Abernathy, Roberta Austin, Phoebe McGill, Dorothy Evans and Betty Magann. After the typists came the temperature girls, Marietta Irby and Penny Mongold and next our nurses. Registered nurses were Mae Shorter, Mildred Schmutz, Sandra White, Rebecca Rosser, Virginia Fratrick, Frances Dyess, and Elaine Hampton, each giving three hours of their time. LPN's who gave three hours each were Rebecca Fox, Judy Watson, and Sue Waddell. Labelers were Elizabeth Jamerson and Charlotte Jennings for the first three hours and Frances Hopkinson and Linda Mays for the 3 to 6 p.m. shift.

Donor Assistants were Lynn Lucado, Shirley Smith, Helen Gunter, Margaret Megginson and Minerva Torrence. In charge of pins and donors were Katie Martin and Barbara Martin. Loaders were Brandford Lucado, and Clayton Martin. Nursery workers were Mildred Hubbard, Essie Miller, Virginia Smith, Carol Bradley, Mrs. Sidney Hughes, Ethel St. John, Thelma Conner, Gladys Bryant, Pam Mays and Bea Hudson.

Responsible for the canteen were the Junior Woman's Club, Kings Market, Travelers Inn, and Pepsi Cola Bottling Company.

The telephone committee consisted of Pam Mays, Kathleen Richardson, Lucille Lewis, Ann Lucado and Alice Martin.

Thanks to the TIMES-VIRGINIAN and WTTX for publicity and to C. L. Purdue for signs.

Thanks!

Liberty Baptist Church To Have Homecoming

Liberty Baptist Church will have homecoming on Sunday, Oct. 21, 1979. The pastor of the church is Rev. Rex Bennett. Liberty Church is 145 years old.

Featured speaker for the morning worship hour will be Rev. Robert L. Camden retired minister who is an outstanding speaker at age 82. He has pastored churches in Virginia for 50 years and is now retired, living in Big Island and is married and has two daughters. He was pastor in Altavista Central Baptist Church for 19 years and Rocky Mount Baptist for 10.

Offering goal for the day is $20,000.00 for the retirement of building debt.

The afternoon worship will begin at 1:15 and will be a program of music under the direction of Mrs. J. - Franklin Vaughan. Choirs, soloists, duets, and quartets will sing for the enjoyment of all.

Lunch will be served following the morning worship. Area residents, former members and pastors are invited and expected to attend.

Liberty will be 150 years old in 1984 and its members are already excited about celebrating the church's beginning, growth and history on that date.

"Golden Trumpteers" To Present Program

"The Golden Trumpteers" of Appomattox will present a program of gospel music on Sunday, October 28, 1979 at 2:00 p.m. at the Chestnut Grove Baptist Church. Proceeds will go to the church building fund and the sponsor of the event is Estelle Daniel.
